CURSOS INTERNACIONALES UNIVERSIDAD DE SALAMANCA

Founded in 1218, it is the oldest of the existing Hispanic universities. One of its main purposes is stated in its bylaws as “the promotion, enhancement and dissemination of the Spanish language”.

Since Nebrija published the first Gramática castellana (Castilian Grammar) in Salamanca in 1492, the University has continued to deepen this ancient endeavor to spread Spanish throughout the world. Its recognition as a Campus of International Excellence endorses the quality of its training programs and faculty.

We are currently developing a great national and international activity, both in the evaluation projects of Spanish as a foreign language, as well as in the teaching-learning of the language through an extensive and varied program.

Cursos Internacionales of the University of Salamanca offers the possibility of studying Spanish throughout the year, regardless of age or level of language proficiency.

CURRENT SPANISH HISTORY

In this class, the different historical moments of the 20th and 21st centuries are presented in a contextualized way, so that the student can understand their importance and their repercussion in today's Spain.

COMPETENCIES FOR ADMISSION TO THE UNIVERSITY

The objective of this course is to deepen students' knowledge of a set of degrees at the University of Salamanca and to provide tools to improve oral and written academic discourse.

Students who successfully complete the CADAUSAL program will be guaranteed access to the University of Salamanca in the following degrees: Degree in Anthropology; Degree in Technical Architecture; Degree in German Studies; Degree in Arabic and Islamic Studies; Degree in French Studies; Degree in Italian Studies; Degree in Portuguese and Brazilian Studies; Degree in Geography; Degree in Geology; Degree in Humanities; Degree in Information And Documentation; Degree in Agri-Food Engineering; Degree in Civil Engineering; Degree in Mining Technology And Energy Engineering; Degree in Materials Engineering; Degree in Electrical Engineering; Degree in Automation And Industrial Electronic Engineering; Degree in Geoinformation And Geomatics Engineering; Degree in Geological Engineering; Degree in Romance Languages, Literatures and Cultures; Degree in Hebrew and Aramaic Studies; SME degree. In addition, 15 credits will be recognized in the enrollment of the mentioned degrees. SME degree acknowledges 15 credits.

Registration in the CADAUSAL program can be done throughout the year until the month of November prior to the start of the course. In addition to the A2 level of Spanish, students are required to have or have applied for the homologation of their pre-university studies to the Spanish High School Diploma at the Ministry of Education, Culture and Sport (MECD) “Credential of homologation or validation of studies” (<https://www.educacionyfp.gob.es/mc/convalidacion-homologacion/convalidacion-no-universitaria/solicitud.html>) except for the Anthropology degree access for which the Certificate of National College Entrance Examination with notarized certification is required. Those students who do not have an A2 level of Spanish can take a previous program of Spanish language and culture at the University of Salamanca, starting in October, which allows them to enter the CADAUSAL program.

Cursos Internacionales of the University of Salamanca includes in the price of the program a medical insurance for the duration of the program, as well as the sending of the letters for the application of the visa necessary for the stay in Spain.

If the student requires accommodation and meal services, these can be purchased separately.

WHY TAKE CADAUSAL?

Students increase their level of Spanish in a university program which guarantees them a choice of twenty-five different degrees from various schools of the University of Salamanca. The student obtains 15 credits, the 25% of a course in the degrees cited.

The University of Salamanca is the only university with the Campus of International Excellence seal in the teaching of Spanish. The teachers have extensive experience in training foreign students.

The University of Salamanca is in charge of developing, for the whole world, the Listening Comprehension and Reading Comprehension tests as well as the correction of the DELE (Diploma of Spanish as a Foreign Language), managed by the Instituto Cervantes.

The University of Salamanca is one of the four institutions holding the International Spanish Language Evaluation Service SIELE and has the only certificate of Spanish for professional purposes in an adaptive mode: LanguageCert USAL esPro.

WHAT IS CADAUSAL?

The program Competencies for Admission to the University of Salamanca is aimed at students of Chinese nationality who, after completing high School, wish to start their studies in Spain.
